Call for Papers

Department of Economics at the University of Mainz, Germany, invites submissions for a one-day Mainz Workshop in Labour Economics, which will take place on October 1, 2015.

The workshop intends to stimulate exchange of ideas in a broader area of modeling worker-firm dynamics in presence of search and matching frictions. Several topics of particular interest are given by (but not limited to) workers intensive margin, firms job creation strategies and evolution of a low-pay segment of employment. Submission of theoretical and empirical papers is equally encouraged. Keynote speech of the workshop will be delivered by Prof. Jean-Marc Robin (SciencesPo and UCL).

The deadline for submissions is August 1, 2015. Authors of submitted papers will be notified of decision shortly thereafter. For submission, please send your paper as an email attachment to Andrey Launov (andrey.launov@uni-mainz.de).

University of Mainz will provide accommodation and reimburse economy class travel expenses for all authors whose contributions were accepted to the workshop.

For more information please contact Andrey Launov (andrey.launov@uni-mainz.de) or Klaus Wälde (klaus.waelde@uni-mainz.de). Further details regarding the workshop are available at: <http://www.large.economics.uni-mainz.de/171.php>

This workshop is a SaM event (please see: <http://sam.univ-lemans.fr> for details on SaM network activity).

This workshop is public and open to all.
